Partner Spotlight:
Sacramento Anesthesia Medical Group

Sacramento Anesthesia Medical Group (SAMG) has had a long history and a strong reputation for excellence in cardiac anesthesia. SAMG primarily serves Dignity Health’s Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento, Calif., which is nationally recognized for the quality of its heart and vascular services.

“A driving factor in our decision to join Vituity was an immediate sense of cultural fit. As Partners in a national organization, we have a fantastic opportunity to tap into Vituity’s huge knowledge base to better meet the needs of our patients. When we need a solution to improve quality or efficiency, we now have a family of Partners on our side.

In addition, Vituity’s robust practice management infrastructure frees us up to spend less time on administrative minutiae and more time on what we do best: caring for patients.”

— Brian Wagner, MD
Medical Director of Anesthesiology
Mercy General Hospital, Sacramento, Calif.

Healthcare is changing, requiring anesthesia groups to spend time and energy on legal, accounting, and technological complexities. Vituity provides a unique model to manage these dynamics while maintaining the group’s autonomy, ownership, and quality.

A Challenging Environment

The complexities of owning and operating an independent anesthesiology group have grown considerably in the last decade for many reasons, such as:

- Declining reimbursements and changing compensation models
- Stringent quality initiatives
- Increasingly complex contract negotiations
- Rise of corporate anesthesia groups
- Mounting government regulations and documentation requirements
- Mounting government regulations and documentation requirements

Given these challenges, it’s no surprise that many anesthesiology groups seek affiliations with larger practices. That’s where Vituity can help.

“The Perfect Fit

Choosing an affiliation partner is an important business decision. Because of Vituity’s unique model, anesthesiologists join as Partners, not as employees, so you can continue your career in an organization that is owned and run by physicians. As part of the multispecialty Vituity family, you will:

- Preserve local autonomy and independence
- Maintain practice ownership as a Vituity Partner
- Access robust quality programs and consultants
- Gain comprehensive practice management support
- Improve your ability to effectively negotiate contracts
- Leverage strong, established payer relationships
- Demonstrate your value with our robust data analysis and management system

Stay Competitive. Show Your Value

Vituity supports every area of your anesthesiology practice to ensure strong leadership, integration of care, and program development. We create the right practice mix and coverage model to ensure optimal care. Our extensive management resources give you the opportunity to focus on your patients and find joy in the practice of medicine.

Our dedicated team of experts provides a variety of management services, including but not limited to:

- Recruiting: Our dedicated recruiters funnel the best and brightest your way. Our extensive outreach and resident programs attract top candidates from across the country.
- Legal and Compliance: Comprehensive malpractice coverage is provided at group rates. We also offer proactive risk management education to keep your practice and patients safer.
- Billing: Optimize your reimbursements while minimizing administrative burden. Vituity’s business professionals handle every step of the billing process so you can focus on patient care.
- Data Analytics: Robust data systems and analytical programs measure and report on patient outcomes to prove value, not just volume.
